

Assistant Instructional Professor Search Committee Meeting

February 9, 2023

Committee members present: Brian Cahill, Marina Klimenko, Paige Talhelm, Peter Kvam

The committee met to discuss their independent evaluations of each of the applicants. Candidates were evaluated and sorted with respect to multiple factors including the quality and completeness of their application materials, the degree to which they met teaching needs within the department, and their fit with the job description. From the set of applicants, the committee compiled a short list of applicants to invite for initial virtual (Zoom) interviews.