Class Location: PUGH 170

Meeting Days/Times: M/W/F from 12:50-1:40PM

Graduate Teaching Assistants: Rachel Warren and Kiah Kramer

Undergraduate Teaching Assistants: Sophia Vargas and Isabella Barbaric

Office Hours: Dr. Shambaugh-Cortesi: Wednesdays 10AM – 12PM in PSY273 (or via Zoom)
[Reserve via <https://calendly.com/lsham>]

Rachel Warren: TBA on the first day of class

Kiah Kramer: TBA on the first day of class

PSY2012 is part of the General Education State Course (S).

State Core Course Description

In this course, students will gain an introduction to the scientific study of human behavior and mental processes. Topics may be drawn from historical and current perspectives in psychology.

Prerequisites

There are no required prerequisites to take this course.

General Education Designation: Social and Behavioral Sciences (S)

Social Science courses must afford students an understanding of the basic social and behavioral science concepts and principles used in the analysis of behavior and past and present social, political, and economic issues. Social and Behavioral Sciences (S) is a sub-designation of Social Sciences at the University of Florida.

These courses provide instruction in the history, key themes, principles, terminology, and underlying theory or methodologies used in the social and behavioral sciences. Students will learn to identify, describe and explain social institutions, structures or processes. These courses emphasize the effective application of accepted problem-solving techniques. Students will apply formal and informal qualitative or quantitative analysis to examine the processes and means by which individuals make personal and group decisions, as well as the evaluation of opinions, outcomes or human behavior. Students are expected to assess and analyze ethical perspectives in individual and societal decisions.

All General Education area objectives can be found here.

Course Textbook

Instructional materials for this course consist of only those materials specifically reviewed, selected, and assigned by the instructor(s). The instructor(s) is only responsible for these instructional materials.

*Please note that this course will be participating in the UF All Access program. Login at the following website and opt-in to gain access to your UF All Access course materials: <https://www.bsd.ufl.edu/AllAccess>.

UF All Access will provide you with your required materials digitally at a reduced price and the charge will be posted to your student account. This option will be available 1 week prior to the start of the semester and will end 3 weeks after the first day of class.

Materials Fee: N/A

Course Goals

Course Objectives

1. To teach you the science behind psychology and how it differs from the media's interpretation.
2. To provide you with an introduction to the different areas within the field of psychology.
3. To teach you the concepts in the field and how to apply them.

State Core Student Learning Outcomes

A student who successfully completes this course will be able to:

1. identify basic psychological theories, terms, and principles from historical and current perspectives.
2. recognize real-world applications of psychological theories, terms, and principles.
3. recognize basic strategies used in psychological research.
4. draw logical conclusions about behavior and mental processes based on empirical evidence.

General Education Student Learning Outcomes

Category	Institutional Definition	Institutional SLO
Content	Content is knowledge of the concepts, principles, terminology and methodologies used within the discipline.	Students demonstrate competence in the terminology, concepts, methodologies and theories used within the discipline.
Communication	Communication is the development and expression of ideas in written and oral forms.	Students communicate knowledge, ideas, and reasoning clearly and effectively in written or oral forms appropriate to the discipline.
Critical Thinking	Critical thinking is characterized by the comprehensive analysis of issues, ideas, and evidence before accepting or formulating an opinion or conclusion.	Students analyze information carefully and logically from multiple perspectives, using discipline specific methods, and develop reasoned solutions to problems. These will be accomplished through assignments and assessments given in this course.

Subject Area Student Learning Outcomes

1. Identify, describe, and explain key themes, principles, and terminology; the history, theory and/or methodologies used; and social institutions, structures and processes.
2. Apply formal and informal qualitative or quantitative analysis effectively to examine the processes and means by which individuals make personal and group decisions. Assess and analyze ethical perspectives in individual and societal decisions.
3. Communicate knowledge, thoughts and reasoning clearly and effectively.

Expectations

You are expected to attend class regularly and complete the readings and assignments listed in this syllabus. You are also expected to check your email regularly (at least once a day) and to visit eLearning (Canvas) on a regular basis. Students typically find that for each hour in class, at least two additional hours are required for preparation.

Attendance

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in the course are consistent with university policies. See <https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/> for more information regarding the University Attendance Policies.

Formal attendance will not be taken in this course. However, there are a set number of points attached to “Ask the Audience” (ATA) activities that require your attendance in class. In order to earn credit for these activities, students must be physically present in class and the activities must be completed during our class period. Ask the Audience activities will be completed using iClicker software, which is accessible via a smartphone app or internet browser. For Fall 2025, the course can be accessed in iClicker at <https://join.iclicker.com/SWYU>.

Class Demeanor

Students are expected to arrive to class on time and behave in a manner that is respectful to the instructor and to fellow students. On quiz and exam days in particular, students must arrive to class no later than 15 minutes after the assessment's start time or they will not be permitted to take the it. This policy is enforced to maintain a quiet and low-distraction testing environment. Please plan accordingly for the four class periods during which we have assessments.

Please avoid using cell phones and restrict eating to outside of the classroom. Opinions held by other students should be respected during discussion. As this is a large section with many students, please refrain from holding side conversations once lecture has begun.

Students Requiring Accommodation

Students who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center by visiting <https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/>. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Sexual Harassment & Disclosures of Sexual Violence

Sexual Harassment is not tolerated in this class, in the Department of Psychology, or at the University of Florida. Sexual harassment includes: the inappropriate introduction of sexual activities or comments in a situation where sex would otherwise be irrelevant. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination and a violation of state and federal laws as well as of the policies and regulations of the university. All UF employees and students must adhere to UF's sexual harassment policy which can be found here: <https://policy.ufl.edu/regulation/1-006/>. Please review this policy and contact a university official if you have any questions about the policy.

As mandatory reporters, university employees (e.g., administrators, managers, supervisors, faculty, teaching assistants, staff) are required to report knowledge of sexual harassment to UF's Title IX coordinator. Title IX violation includes sexual harassment, sexual assault, stalking, domestic/intimate partner violence, etc. For assistance or to inform Title IX any incident(s) that may constitute a Title IX violation, please complete the Title IX Information Form here: <https://titleix.ufl.edu/report/> or email inform@titleix.ufl.edu, or call 352-273-1094.

UF Policies on Software Use

All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate.

In-Class Recording

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A "class lecture" is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or guest lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To "publish" means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third-party-note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

Graded Work

Unit Quizzes (32%)

There will be four (4) in-class quizzes on course content during the semester. Quizzes are designed to assess your understanding of course material to date and to prepare you for the larger midterm and last (final) exams. Each quiz contains 30 multiple-choice applied questions; each question is worth 1 point.

Your lowest quiz grade will be dropped from your overall grade; thus, only three quizzes will be included in your final grade.

Assembly Midterm (21%) and Last (Final) Exam (14%)

The midterm is an assembly exam, and will take place on Wednesday, 10/8/25 in Carleton Auditorium (CAR) 100 at 8:20PM. The last (final) exam will be in class and on the last day of class (Wednesday, 12/3/25 at 12:50PM). You will be given 70 minutes total for the midterm (60 items) and 50 minutes total for the last (final) exam (40 items). The midterm and last exam will cover the first and second half of the semester, respectively. Please note that this course does not have a final exam during final exam week.

Writing/Project Assignments (21%)

This class has three writing/project assignments for students to complete individually outside of class: Creating an original optical illusion (20 points), a reflection paper about a contemporary news article related to psychological science (30 points), and an Implicit Association Test (IAT) reflection (10 points). Grading rubrics are attached at the end of this syllabus. Additional assignment details are available on Canvas, and will also be covered by the instructor during class.

➤ In-Class Ask the Audience (ATA) Questions (7%)

There will be 12 “Ask the Audience” (ATA) questions completed during class throughout the semester (2 points each). The two (2) lowest scores will be dropped from students’ final grade (for a total of 20 points). These questions serve to gauge student understanding of that day’s lecture material, and also encourage consistent attendance (as these questions are not announced ahead of time). For Fall 2025, the course can be accessed in iClicker at <https://join.iclicker.com/SWYU>.

➤ SONA Research Participation Requirement (5%)

The Psychology Department requires that all students enrolled in PSY2012 participate in research. The deadlines for this requirement can be found in the document titled “SONA Research Requirement Instructions” (on our Canvas assignments page). Please note: the deadline to participate in research studies is earlier than the deadline to assign credits to this course. Completion of this requirement affects your course grade based on the amount of research credits you earn. Do NOT wait until the last minute to complete this requirement. The longer you wait, the harder it will be to get all the credits needed! If you are unable to participate in SONA research due to age or simply do not wish to participate in research studies, you may “opt in” to an alternative assignment. More details on this alternative assignment can be found in the SONA instructional document on Canvas.

Grading Scale

Assignment	Points	Approx. Percentage of Grade (Rounded)
Unit Quizzes (4; Lowest Dropped)	90	32%
Midterm Exam (1)	60	21%
Last Exam (1)	40	14%
Writing/Project Assignments (3)	60	21%
Ask the Audience Questions (12; 2 Lowest Dropped)	20	7%
SONA Research Participation (15 credits)	15	5%
Total	285	100%

Grade	Scale	Grade	Scale
A	93-100%	C	73-76%
A-	90-92%	C-	70-72%
B+	87-89%	D+	67-69%
B	83-86%	D	63-66%
B-	80-82%	D-	60-62%
C+	77-79%	E	<60%

*Note: A minimum grade of C is required for General Education credit. Final total percentage points with a decimal value equal to or greater than .5 will be rounded to the next number. For further information about current UF grading policies for assigning grade points, please see <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx>.

Policy for Disputing a Grade

You will have one week (including weekends and holidays) after any course material grade has been posted to dispute your grade. The exception will be the last exam because there won't be enough time to complete disputes and turn grades in. Disputes will not be accepted after that date. If you want to dispute a grade you will need to write a paragraph explaining the dispute. For exams/quizzes, write out the question on the quiz and a paragraph explaining why your answer is correct with references to the material in the text for each question or writing assignment you are disputing. Then send a private email with this information to the instructor's e-mail address.

Make-ups and Late Work

I do not accept late work or permit quiz or exam make-ups unless there is an acceptable reason with evidence that is aligned with the UF absence policy (e.g., illness, serious family emergency, special curricular requirements, religious holidays, etc.). Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found in the Catalog. Supporting documentation must be provided within 24 hours of a quiz or assignment's due date to be eligible for a make-up/extension.

Approved make-up exams must be completed within one week of the original exam date, barring extreme extenuating circumstances. In the situation of multiple exams on the same date, see here for guidance: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/examination-policies-reading-days/>. There are no special exams, optional papers or catch-up projects available at the end of the semester to compensate for poor performance during the semester.

Procedure for Conflict Resolution

Any classroom issues, disagreements or grade disputes should be discussed first between the instructor and the student. If the problem cannot be resolved, please contact Dr. Julie Graber (jagrab@ufl.edu, (352) 273-2128). Be prepared to provide documentation of the problem, as well as all graded materials for the semester. Issues that cannot be resolved departmentally will be referred to the University Ombuds Office (<http://www.ombuds.ufl.edu>; 352-392-1308) or the Dean of Students Office (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu>; 352-392-1261).

University Honesty Policy

University of Florida students are bound by the Honor Pledge. On all work submitted for credit by a student, the following pledge is required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Student Honor Code and Conduct Code (Regulation 4.040) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code, as well as the process for reported allegations and sanctions that may be implemented. All potential violations of the code will be reported to Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution. If a student is found responsible for an Honor Code violation in this course, the instructor will enter a Grade Adjustment sanction which may be up to or including failure of the course. For additional information, see <https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/policies/student-honor-code-student-conduct-code/>.

Study Skills

Important study habits that will help you succeed in this class include:

1. Reading all assigned pages by the date they are assigned,
2. Reading and studying the text before and after hearing the lectures on those topics, and
3. Studying and testing yourself in-depth on the days before each exam.

*Note: Please read the assigned chapter and review any additional assigned materials before the specific class meetings. Course schedule is subject to change if the need arises. It is your responsibility to keep up with any change(s) by coming to class and staying updated. It is not feasible to cover all of the materials in the textbook during the class meetings. I will focus on major and important themes in the chapters, but students are responsible for all information covered in the text.

A section of the textbook may contain concepts that do not comply with Florida Statutes covering content in General Education courses as determined by the Board of Governors of the State University System of Florida. Those pages are not required reading, nor are there assignments associated with those concepts.

Course Evaluations

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online.

Students can complete evaluations in three ways:

1. The email they receive from GatorEvals
2. Their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals
3. The central portal at <https://my-ufl.bluer.com>

Guidance on how to provide constructive feedback is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

News Article Reflection Paper (Ch. 1/2) Rubric

Criteria	Excellent (Full Points)	Good	Adequate	Minimal	No Effort
Article Claim/Summary (4 Points)	4 Points Comprehensive summary of the article and claims; accurately describes evidence and public relevance.	3 Points Adequate summary with minor omissions or unclear aspects; generally accurate description of evidence and relevance.	2 Points Partial summary with significant omissions; limited description of evidence and relevance.	1 Point Brief or incomplete summary; insufficient description of evidence and relevance.	0 Points No summary provided.
Overview and Explanation of Scientific Thinking Principles (6 Points)	6 Points Clear and accurate definitions of all six principles, demonstrating strong understanding.	4-5 Points Mostly accurate definitions with minor errors; good understanding of principles.	2-3 Points Partial or inaccurate definitions; basic understanding of some principles.	1 Point Minimal or incorrect definitions; lack of understanding.	0 Points No explanation provided.
Application of Thinking Principles (10 Points)	10 Points Accurately identifies at least three relevant principles; thorough evaluation demonstrating deep insight.	7-9 Points Good application with minor errors or less detailed explanations; adequate evaluation.	4-6 Points Identifies fewer than three principles or includes errors; limited evaluation.	1-3 Points Identifies principles with major errors or unclear relevance; superficial evaluation.	0 Points No application of principles.
Conclusion (5 Points)	5 Points Clear restatement of claims and principles; well-reasoned takeaway.	4 Points Adequate restatement and reasonable takeaway but may lack clarity or depth.	3 Points Partial restatement with errors; basic takeaway.	1-2 Points Minimal restatement or weak takeaway with little reasoning.	0 Points No conclusion provided.
Writing Mechanics (5 Points)	5 Points Flawless writing, well-organized, follows formatting guidelines precisely.	4 Points Good writing with minor errors that do not impede understanding.	3 Points Some errors that slightly hinder clarity or flow.	2 Points Noticeable errors affecting readability and clarity.	1 Point Frequent errors severely impeding understanding. 0 Points No submission or unreadable.

Optical Illusion Assignment (Ch. 4) Rubric

Criteria	Excellent (Full Points)	Good	Adequate	Minimal	No Effort
Original Photograph Showing Size Constancy Violation (10 Points)	10 Points Clear and convincing illusion that strongly violates size constancy; minimal to no cues revealing actual object size; demonstrates creativity and attention to detail.	8-9 Points Effective illusion with minor issues; few cues to actual size, but the illusion still mostly works; good effort.	6-7 Points Somewhat convincing illusion, but with noticeable cues to actual size; illusion is less effective but still understandable.	4-5 Points Illusion is weak or unclear; several cues reveal actual size, diminishing the effectiveness; lacks attention to detail.	0-3 Points Illusion is not convincing or does not demonstrate size constancy violation; excessive cues to actual size; lacks creativity.
Illusion Explanation Photograph (5 Points)	5 Points Clear and well-composed photograph showing how the illusion was created; effectively demonstrates the setup and perspective used.	4 Points Good photograph showing the setup, but with minor issues in clarity or composition.	3 Points Adequate photograph, but with some lack of clarity or detail in showing the setup; viewer may need to infer parts of the process.	2 Points Photograph is unclear or poorly composed, making it difficult to understand how the illusion was created.	0-1 Points Photograph is missing, irrelevant, or does not show the illusion setup effectively.
1-Paragraph Written Explanation (5 Points)	5 Points Clear, concise, and well-organized explanation; thoroughly describes the illusion, location, timing, and design process; no significant errors.	4 Points Good explanation with minor errors or omissions; adequately describes the illusion and process, though some details may be less clear.	3 Points Adequate explanation, but with noticeable errors or lack of detail; some aspects of the illusion or process are unclear.	2 Points Explanation is unclear, incomplete, or poorly organized; fails to adequately describe key aspects of the illusion or process.	0-1 Points Explanation is missing, irrelevant, or does not provide meaningful insight into the illusion or process.

Implicit Association Test (IAT) Reflection (Ch. 12) Rubric

Criteria	Excellent (Full Points)	Good	Adequate	Minimal	No Effort
IAT Identification (1 Point)	1 Point Clearly identifies the specific IAT taken, with correct and complete details.	0.75 Points Identifies the IAT taken, but with minor omissions or errors in detail.	0.5 Points Identifies the IAT, but with noticeable errors or vague details.	0.25 Points Provides unclear or incomplete identification of the IAT taken.	0 Points Does not identify the IAT taken or provides incorrect information.
