PSY7980 Research for Doctoral Dissertation, Students may enroll for 1-15 credits.

Research for the Doctoral Dissertation.

Course Objectives

To conduct research as part of graduate training in the student's specified research area of Psychology.

Students are expected to meet with the chair of their committee and define the specific research goals for the semester. Students at the dissertation level must meet with the entire supervisory committee to assess progress toward goals.

Attendance Policy, Class Expectations, and Make-Up Policy

Students are expected to engage in research activities for at least 3 hours per credit enrolled per week throughout the semester. Additional hours will likely be necessary to make progress on the project.

Evaluation of Grades

These courses are graded as S/U.

Evaluation of S versus U will be based on supervisory committee chair's evaluation of progress on goals established at the beginning of the semester.

More information on UF grading policy may be found at:

Students Requiring Accommodations

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the Disability Resource Center. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluation

Individual work courses are not included in the UF course evaluation system.

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Software Use

All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to uphold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.

Student Privacy

There are federal laws protecting your privacy with regards to grades earned in courses and on individual assignments. For more information, please see the Notification to Students of FERPA Rights.

Sexual Harassment

Sexual Harassment is not tolerated in this class, in the Department of Psychology, or at the University of Florida. Sexual harassment includes: the inappropriate introduction of sexual activities or comments in a situation where sex would otherwise be irrelevant. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination and a violation of state and federal laws as well as of the policies and regulations of the university. All UF employees and students must adhere to UF's sexual harassment policy which can be found here:

<https://hr.ufl.edu/formspolicies/policiesmanagers/sexual-harassment/>. Please review this policy and contact a university official if you have any questions about the policy. As mandatory reporters, university employees (e.g., administrators, managers, supervisors, faculty, teaching assistants, staff) are required to report knowledge of sexual harassment to UF's Title IX coordinator. If you disclose this information, please keep this in mind and seek advice prior to disclosing to a mandatory reporter. For more information about UF's Title IX office see: <https://titleix.ufl.edu/>. You can also complete a Sexual Harassment Report online (Title IX) at: <https://titleix.ufl.edu/title-ix-reporting-form/>.

Inclusive and Anti-Racist Learning Environment

Civility and respect for the opinions and backgrounds of others are very important in an academic environment. It is likely you may not agree with everything that is said or discussed in this course. However, courteous behavior and responses are expected at all times. When you disagree with someone, be sure that you make a distinction between criticizing an idea and criticizing the person. Expressions or actions that disparage a person's or race, ethnicity, nationality, culture, gender, gender identity / expression, religion, sexual orientation, age, disability, or marital, parental, or veteran status are contrary to the mission of this course and will not be tolerated. In this course we will focus on engaging and collaborating in scholarship that challenges oppressive and unjust forces. Throughout this class we will work to understand and reduce racial injustices within the field and study of developmental psychology. The aim of these discussions is to empower students towards this collective goal.
